A young lady asks this useless question in the "feeble-minded column" of a leading paper: "Do you think it right for a girl to sit on a young man's lap, even if she is engaged?" Whereupon the editor tells this extraordinary whopper: "We

Why didn't he say—"If it was our girl and our lap, yes; if it was another girl and our lap, yes; but if it was our girl and another fellow's lap, never, never, never!"

CORRESPONDENCE.

CENTRETOWN ITEMS.

Mr. Geo. Pope made his regular trip to his best girls house last Sunday. His return home was a little irregular, and he awoke he found himself in the western part of the state. George says he is all broke up over it.

Mr. D. J. Weaver, our handsome dry goods man, has not only won the good graces of one of the fairest young ladies of our city, but drives a fine horse and buggy, and was quite a conspicuous figure at the picnic Saturday.

We wonder what a certain citizen of the town of Marion would have to say by way of explanation if his better-half should call him to account for his undue familiarity with certain young ladies not a thousand miles from Centretown? Wonder what made him take to the alleys, make such good time to his home one Sunday not long since, was it whisky or what was it? We advise our Marion friend in the future to keep his wife's company, and to remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy. It will save him trouble.

Mr. Adam Flessa is making good use of his fine buggy. There is a great deal of young America belonging to Adam. He took a pair of our best looking young ladies to the picnic Saturday.

Mr. Henry Kirschman and family have moved on a farm close to Jamestown. We regret very much to have them leave us, as they were among our best and most useful citizens.

MARION ITEMS.

Plenty of dry weather and no rain as yet. The farmers are getting very uneasy about the corn crop. Wheat threshing has commenced in earnest. The wheat is about a half yield to last year.

Mr. Henry Baushausen, one of our best farmers, was made happy last Sunday. It was a bouncing big boy. Henry says he never was so glad; it is the first.

Mr. Frank Hunziker, one of our best citizens who lives close here, was made happy. His is a ten-pound boy. Frank is so glad.

Capt. John Glenn gave his friends a "nice excursion ride on his new boat Monday. They were all well pleased with their ride. Captain has a fine boat and will boat wheat out of the Monticau for the present season.

Capt. Ed. Stuart of the ferry boat, and G. W. Mordica, the blacksmith, of this place, made a business trip to Jefferson Tuesday.

Mr. Fred Rithel, the boss farmer of Marion, gave the boys a fine treat after finishing his hay harvest to a case of beer.

Mr. David Lindsey and Gilmore Taggart made a flying trip to Jefferson City Thursday.

Mr. Johnson Glenn made a business trip to California Friday.

SCRUGGS.

The rains of last week started everything to growing that was not too far gone to survive.

Mr. Geo. W. Distler purchased a car load of corn from Kansas City last week.

Mr. Joseph Wick made a business trip to town Monday of this week.

Mr. Marine Miller of Miller county, was threshing in the Gordon neighborhood last week.

Mr. Dulle of near Lohman's was in Scruggs last Thursday.

Mr. Henry Rucker was ill several days last week.

Mr. Geo. Rains is now prepared to furnish his customers with the best of flour, having put in new machinery recently. Mr. Rains is a worthy citizen and deserves the patronage of the country.

Mrs. M. Coyner visited friends and relatives near California, Mo., last week.

Corn will not yield more than half a crop.

ELSTON ITEMS.

Messrs. Smidt & Deitz commenced threshing the new crop in this vicinity last week, but owing to the rainy and damp weather but little work was done. The yield is light, averaging about six bushels per acre.

The recent rains have revived the corn so that the farmer may yet have a few babbins, but notwithstanding the fine rains the corn crop will be light.

The Elston picnic on Saturday was rather slim in attendance, but lively. Those present seemed to be enjoying themselves. An eating stand was set, where at all times the roast mutton and other good things were being served. Music and dancing seemed to be the principal past time on the ground. We noticed Gen. D. H. McIntyre, Thos. Mahan and Attorney Davison, democratic candidates, and also the notorious Bill Gordon, all of Jeff City.

Peter Alexander threshed the wheat crop of L. A. Wade last week, and has now set his threshers at Mr. Jas. Durban's ready to thresh as soon as the weather will admit.

Miss Sallie E. Routsong has accepted a six-months winter term of school in the Kings Chappel district, 2 and 1-2 miles northwest of Elston.

Miss Anna Routsong will teach the winter school term in the Hutchinson district west of Elston.

Postmistress Moore of Elston, received the sad intelligence on last Tuesday from her son, Homer Moore, of the death of their oldest child. She and her daughter, recently from Atlanta, Georgia, at once left to be present at the funeral and remain with the family, several of whom are sick with scarlet fever. Mr. Moore resides near High Point, Mo.

We learn that the farmers union of this county will soon call a convention to nominate an independent ticket, this means a farmer for representative not pledged to George Gimblethole Vest, one who will go into no party caucuses, and pledged to support a farmer for U. S. senator, pledged so in writing, without regard to politics. The farmer's union are in a shape to control Clark, Marion and Moreau townships and part of Jefferson by sticking together and having a ticket of their own independent and without regard to party politics. They, by doing this, are in a good position to make it hot for Cole county office-seekers and hummers. By all means, gentlemen, let's have the ticket. They have the material
